

Caution Notice Regarding Misleading Information Circulating in Public Domain

Date: April 08, 2025

Shangar Decor Limited would like to bring to the attention of its investors, stakeholders, and the general public that certain false and misleading information has been circulating on Telegram and other social media platforms. These claims are entirely baseless and untrue.

The company does indeed have a contract with many venues, located in Ahmedabad; however, the quantum of the contract has never been disclosed publicly, and the figures mentioned in the circulating content are completely falsified.

We wish to clarify that Shangar Decor Limited has always complied with the regulations set forth by the Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE) and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI). We are committed to ensuring that all our communications are transparent and in line with the interests of our investors and shareholders.

We encourage all stakeholders to disregard such misleading information and to rely solely on official communications issued by the company, including press releases and regulatory filings. Shangar Decor Limited will continue to work in full cooperation with the relevant authorities to investigate and address the source of this misinformation.

To further ensure the protection of our stakeholders, we have published this caution notice on our official website and will continue to monitor the situation closely. We also recommend that investors stay informed through official channels and remain cautious of any unsolicited information that may be circulating.

We thank you for your continued trust and support.
